Principal Matters

4.2 Tuesday 10th October 2023

What?

Holding up a cricket bat, I said: 'Students, this is a tennis racquet.'

Holding up a pencil, I said: 'This is an eraser.'

Holding up a blue card, I said: 'This is the colour red.'

The students were really confused and couldn't make much sense of what was going on.

Students were asked to consider a simple thought experiment: What would it be like to go to a school where teachers didn't tell the truth? How would you learn things if you couldn't be sure if you could trust what teachers said?

We soon concluded that unless students could absolutely trust teachers to tell them the truth, we wouldn't have much of a school.

Just like we must know that teachers are truthful, it is just as important for students to tell the truth as well. What would it be like to come to a school where no one could be sure whether anyone was being honest?

Telling the truth is not always easy, especially if something wrong has happened. We all acknowledged that this was a challenge, but that in the end, we all must aim to be honest all the time at school so that we can be confident to trust each other and build a culture of mutual respect.

Council

Council members are reminded that we have a meeting tomorrow evening (Wednesday) at 7pm. This is an important meeting as we need to discuss elements of the OSHC program for 2024.

Year 6 Camp <https://www.cottagebythesea.com.au>

This very special camp at Cottage by the Sea in Queenscliff and is now just 13 days away. We will again share this camp with the same age students from Talbot Primary School.

The program includes boogie boarding, surfing, and going out fishing – bringing back anything we catch to cook for the evening meal. All these activities are supervised by fully qualified staff from the camp. Mr. Mellberg and a female staff member from Talbot will attend the camp with the students.

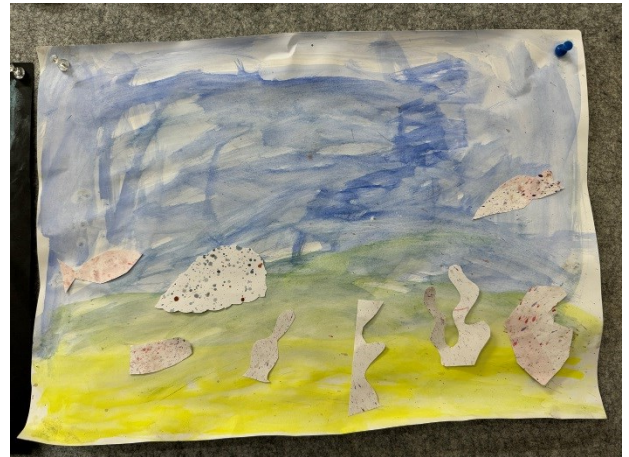

Final permissions have gone out today and need to be returned ASAP. There is no cost to students for this camp – this includes transport and camp costs. (The Victorian Government is meeting most of the cost, and school is contributing to make this a free camp for our families.)

Health Ed

Each year the school addresses through the curriculum age-appropriate lessons about the human body. At Years 4-6, we teach a unit that focuses on issues around puberty including a deeper understanding of the male and female body as well as the physical and psychological changes that occur.

Ocean Inspirations

The years 3—6 class have been producing ocean-inspired artworks in coloured chalk, acrylics and collage
